COMPANY PROFILE

Our technicians have experience in Air Conditioning and Refrigeration, Ventilation and Extraction systems of all sizes and applications. Garden Route Air Conditioning in association with various architects, mechanical, electrical and structural engineers have the capability to design, manufacture and install HVAC and Refrigeration systems of any size and description.

ABOUT C&M

In 2021 Garden Route Air Conditioning (Pty) Ltd was established in Plettenberg Bay to focus on Services, Maintenance, Repairs and Installations and of all Air Conditioning, Ventilation and Refrigeration (HVAC) Systems in Plettenberg Bay, Knysna and Sedgefield and surrounding area. A wide variety of Green Air Conditioning units as well as spares form part of the business.

The newly established, Garden Route Air Conditioning (Pty) Ltd, in Plettenberg Bay, was born out of C&M Air Conditioning and Refrigeration (Pty) Ltd, a dynamic supplier and service provider, specializing in Air Conditioning, Refrigeration, Ventilation and extraction since 1999.

We have a wealth of experience in our midst and are proud of our employees, whom we consider our greatest asset. With many years of experience among our employees C&M can assure you of top-quality workmanship.

Our holding company, C&M Air Conditioning was appointed the sole agent and distributor for Green Air Conditioning products in South Africa during 2001. Green is a major supplier to the Air Conditioning Industry worldwide.
